EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kevin J. Zilka on 24 May 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

- Claim 8, Line 12 → amend "a computer readable medium" to — a tangible computer readable medium —.

Applicant's Response

In Applicant's Response dated 28 April 2005, Applicant amended Claims 1, 2, 8, 9, 12 and 15, cancelled Claims 17-19, and argued against all objections and rejections previously set forth in the Office Action dated 29 March 2005.

All objections and rejections previously set forth are withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 8-13, 15 and 16 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 8 and 15:

The closest prior art is Friedman, which discloses reformatting an XML document by parsing the document and separating the tags and data associated therewith onto separate lines of an element stack. Concurrently, a state machine maintains the hierarchy of the tags within the document by delineating each line with a tag structure representation corresponding to the line.

Friedman fails to disclose, however, an element stack that includes a line containing an embedded tag that is embedded within another tag, wherein the tag structure representation corresponding to that particular line includes both the embedded tag and the other tag, and wherein the embedded tag is located at the top of a LIFO tag stack above the other tag.

A search of the prior art located a LIFO tag stack with an embedded tag above another tag (see Girardot, US 2003/0023628). However, the prior art fails to disclose or suggest the combination of elements recited in Claims 1, 8 and 15.

Claims 2-6, 9-13 and 16:

These claims are dependent upon Claims 1, 8 and 15 and are thus allowable.

Art Unit: 2179

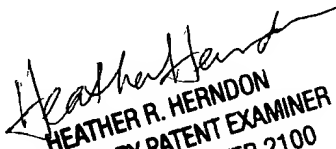

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
